

6516205598.txt

Satellite radio is a new competitive technology and does not need harrassment by established radio. Let all compete on on an even playing field. The FCC is not here to determine the outcome of the marketplace when it is free and open. Let consumers decide.